

Landscaping Notes: Hlaalu Canalworks

- Overview
 - Landscaper: Overseer
 - Writer: ckorkos
 - Location: Hlaalu Canalworks
 - Beneath the Hlaalu Waistworks in the City of Vivec
 - Includes entrances to the Underworks and Ancestral Vault
- Notes
 - Items
 - “Beware Sleepers” Poster
 - Item: Poster (reuse one of the “Beware Dagoth Ur” poster arts)
 - Location: Near most or all exits from the Canalworks, especially the trapdoors to the Underworks where a Sleeper hides
 - Text:
 - Servants of the Sharmat lurk behind every door and beneath every foot. Report any signs of malignancy to the nearest Ordinator.
 - Silence is sin!
 - “Beware Ashlanders” Poster
 - Item: Poster (reuse the “Beware Ashlanders” poster art)
 - Location: Near most or all exits from the Canalworks, and in other locations where posters are grouped
 - Text:
 - Vermin from the wastes invade through the crevices of your grand city. Report any suspected Ashlander to the nearest Ordinator.
 - Do your part!
 - “Beware the Blight” Poster

- Item: Poster
- Location: Near most or all exits from the Canalworks, especially the trapdoors to the Underworks where blighted rats roam
- Text:
 - Only your valor guards the purity of the Dunmer from the Sharmat's Blight. Report all signs of infection to the nearest Ordinator.

Keep your city clean!

▪ Cat's Paw

- Item: Low-level club(?) if present in game, or mace if not
- Effects:
 - Deals extra damage to rats
 - Chance to paralyze
- Description:
 - There's no telling how many generations of sewer-rats have been crushed beneath this rusty, crusted truncheon.

Poisons may be resisted over time, but no beast is immune to a good bashing.

▪ Wedding Band

- Item: Extravagant Ring
- Location: At the bottom of one of the pools into which the water spouts drain
- Description:
 - This tarnished ring feels lonely to the touch. Whether by heartbreak or blunder, the expensive promise of betrothal has ventured far from the canals of Vivec.

In any case, it's bound to fetch a decent price at the right pawn shop. Lucky you.

▪ Waterlogged Note

- Item: Crumpled Paper Note
- Location: On the floor, next to one of the water spouts

- Text:
 - “Whatever you do, DON’T FORGET TO---”
 -  the note should be torn, smudged, or otherwise obscured past this point
- Gondolier’s Note
 - Item: Note (non-crumpled)
 - Location:
 - Inside a small, locked box along with meager gold and gondolier clothing
 - The box is placed next to the bedrolls and other items belonging to gondoliers of House Hlaalu
 - Note: “Nammu” translates to “no-name”
 - Text:
 - Nammu -

*Have you given any more thought to my proposition?
Obviously I won’t detail it in writing, but I think you got the gist when we spoke.*

B’vehk, they can’t keep bleeding us dry like this. Between the low pay, the long hours, and the Temple “donations”, I can barely afford to feed myself. If us gondoliers don’t unify, this will only get worse.

I know I’m not the only one who’s angry. What good is living in Vivec if we’re stuck at the bottom?

And you better burn this note. If some Ordinator s’wit comes waving his little mace around, he’ll be the next rat we fish out of the canals.

- Fellow nammu.
